

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The late Helen Keller was an example of courage and faith to all mankind; and

WHEREAS, Miss Keller devoted herself to improving the lives and living conditions of blind and deaf-blind persons in the United States and throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, Her inspiration and leadership brought about profound changes in programs and methods for the education and rehabilitation of blind persons; and

WHEREAS, Her work must be carried on vigorously as long as blindness exists; and

WHEREAS, The first anniversary of Helen Keller's death is an appropriate time to re-dedicate ourselves to the cause she served;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN THAT I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week beginning June 1 as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 18th day of April in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine.
